The work of God is this: to believe in the ONE He has sent. (John 6:29)

CHANGED LIVES IN PABIANICE

The month of June began with a weekend of rejoicing as we gathered with believers from the Genesis Nova church in Pabianice. On Saturday we enjoyed a picnic together and then celebrated as seven were baptized into Christ. We heard many testimonies of God's power to change lives. On Sunday we reflected on "Jego moc" (His power) that works in us to do more than we can think or imagine. We thank God for Kamil Wlazlowicz and Lukasz Wysocki and the congregation at Genesis Nova. Truly God's power is at work among them!

TEAM PABIANICE

A team of five (from ME, PA, and TN) spent the week in Pabianice providing English conversation sessions for those who wanted to improve their English. This was an outreach of the Genesis Nova church, using the "Let's Start Talking" curriculum based on the book of Luke. It was a great way to encourage relationships and build bridges with the community. Thank you, Team Pabianice, for serving with such joy and dedication.

TEAM BIALA PODLASKA

Pastor Steve Bolin (PCM Board member) and his wife, Tracey, brought a team from Thrive Church in Camby, IN. They are Living Links with the church in Biala Podlaska and have previously brought teams to serve alongside this congregation. As part of the new building project, they hauled large quantities of dirt to direct drainage away from the building. We are thankful for the partnership between these two churches and the relationships that have been established.

TEAM OSTRODA CAMP

Olga Bajko (daughter-in-law of PCM founder, Paul Bajko) led a team from the Slavic Church of Christ in Baltimore, MD, to serve at Ostroda Camp. Besides completing various work projects at the camp, they provided preaching and music at the Ostroda church, visited an orphanage for Ukrainian children, and developed friendships with teens in town.

We are so thankful for their joyful spirits and the wonderful service they provided.

We hope to see them again in Poland sometime soon.

DID YOU KNOW? ...

... Paul and Adela Bajko returned to Poland in 1963 with their three children for a 2-month visit. At the time, Andrew Bajko was six years old. Last year, Andrew returned to Poland with his wife, Olga, and their two daughters. They came again this summer, and hopefully this trend will continue.

Pastor Zbyszek Tarkowski at the "Pulawska" church in Warsaw, made a special presentation honoring PCM for 70 years of service in Poland. He welcomed Andrew and Olga Bajko to the stage along with PCM Executive Director, David Hatfield. We are thankful for the Bajko family and for the Polish pastors and ministry workers with whom it is such an honor to serve alongside.

CSM WORSHIP CONFERENCE

Over 700 worship leaders and musicians from all over Poland gathered in Warsaw on June 15 for the annual CSM worship conference. This year's theme was "Jedyny" - there is only one God worthy of all our devotion. The teaching, fellowship, and worship were inspiring. We are so thrilled and thankful to partner with Adam Kosewski and his team at CSM. Through their devoted service, the churches of Poland are being built up and the praises of God are going forth.

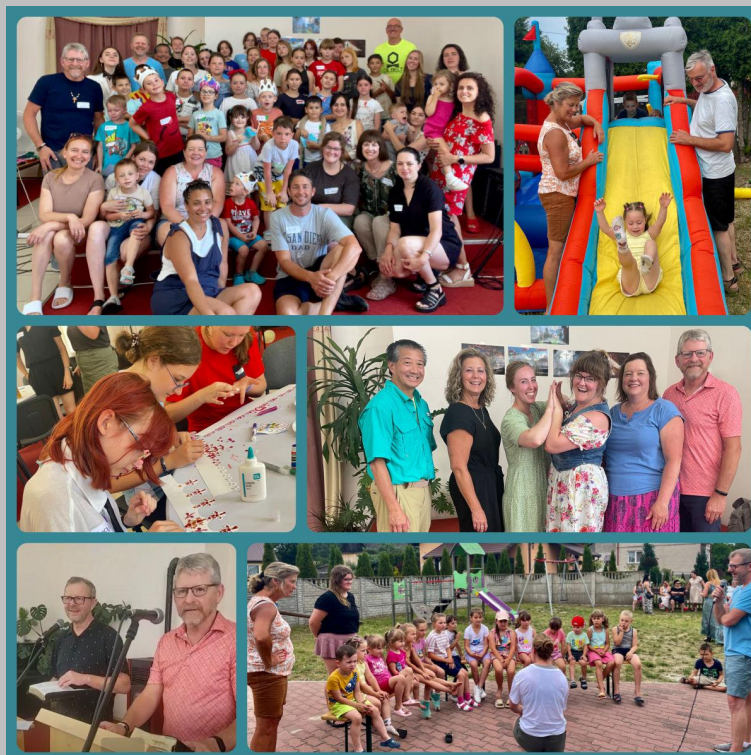

Pastor Joe Putting and the Tomoka Christian Church in Ormond Beach, FL, are Living Links with both Adam Kosewski (CSM Director) and Daniel Masarczyk (Sosnowiec). During his stay in Poland, Pastor Joe was a main speaker at the CSM conference, and also spent the day with Daniel and Gosia in Sosnowiec. Although prayer and financial support are so needed, it's these in-person one-on-one moments that provide such encouragement to our Polish ministry partners.

TOMOKA TEAM

The team from Tomoka Christian Church (Ormond Beach, FL) met with several Ukrainian refugee families at Warsaw "West," helped with food distribution for the refugees at Warsaw "South," participated in the CSM conference, and worshiped with their Living Link church in Sosnowiec. Even though several of the team came down sick while in Poland, they managed to push through and accomplish all the goals they had for the trip. We are so thankful for each one and the joy and blessing they brought.

SANDOMIERZ TEAM

A team from the White River Christian Church in Noblesville, IN, just completed a week of service in Sandomierz, Poland. In cooperation with Adam Byra and the people of the church, they led a day camp for Ukrainian children, and also provided a children's program for Polish children in a nearby village and for Ukrainian refugee children living at the site of an old palace. This was the second time White River has sent a team and once again we thank God for their labor of love. May every seed planted in the hearts of the children take root and produce a harvest of faith in the Lord Jesus.
