SEEDS OF THE GOSPEL

During the Ukrainian refugee crisis, the Gospel message has been shared in multiple ways. Whether from the pulpit, in small informal gatherings, as part of a Ukrainian children's summer camp, on Bible and literature tables, and even via solar-powered audio Bibles, the Word of God continues to go forth. Please join us in praying that our Ukrainian friends will find encouragement in the Scriptures and every Gospel seed will bear fruit.

THE WORK CONTINUES

It was 158 days ago that Russia invaded Ukraine. The war in Ukraine may no longer be headline news, but the war rages on and the efforts to help those in need continue. Hundreds of families still come to distribution centers for food and supplies and transports with goods for the military make their way into Ukraine. Many of our churches are still hosting Ukrainians (e.g., 24 refugees at the church in Bielsk Podlaski). PCM continues to send funds to assist in all these efforts. Please pray for the war to cease, that God will comfort the millions of refugees displaced from their homes, and that our Polish partners will find renewed strength and compassion to continue serving.

OFF TO CANADA

We met these three Ukrainian young ladies while serving at the Pulawska church in Warsaw. They served morning until night - cooking, cleaning, helping with documents in the reception center, leading the Ukrainian children's summer camp - all the while singing and smiling their way into our hearts. They are three sisters and their parents and eight other siblings have remained in Ukraine. These girls just recently moved to Canada and

OLA TO CHICAGO

Aleksandra (Ola) Dziedzic is one of the young student leaders raised up for ministry in Ostroda, Poland. She has been very active serving not only in the various youth initiatives in Poland, but also traveled with the team to Ukraine last year to assist at the Ukrainian youth camp. Ola's desire is to continue her training in order to more effectively minister to youth. She was accepted this summer to attend Moody Bible Institute in Chicago where she will major in youth ministry. PCM Board members and summer volunteers met with Ola in June to hear her story and to pray with her. We're thankful for her desire to reach youth with the Gospel and pray great blessing on her as she begins her studies this month. PCM is receiving donations to assist Ola with her living expenses while in Chicago.
